

19 April 1950

Major General A. R. Bolling, OSC
Deputy Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2
Department of the Army
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Bolling:

Thank you very much for the kind words expressed in your letter of 18 April in connection with my lecture to the students of the Thirteenth Course of the Strategic Intelligence School. It was, indeed, a pleasure to be able to do so.

I shall be pleased to address the Class of the Fourteenth Course of the School and, as far as can be determined now, the time and date suggested, 1000 hours on 16 May 1950, will be convenient.

Sincerely,

Signed

R. H. Hillenkoetter
Rear Admiral, USN
Director of Central Intelligence

Rear Admiral R. H. Hillenkoetter
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

I am taking this opportunity to express the appreciation of the Strategic Intelligence School and myself for your lecture contribution to the students of the Thirteenth Course. It is a pleasure to inform you that the presentation was regarded as most outstanding, and your appearance before the student body was a matter of great pride to the School.

The Fourteenth Course of the School will commence in May of 1950. It is hoped that you may find it convenient to address this class on 16 May 1950 at 1040 hours.

Should you accede to this request, a member of the School Staff will communicate with your office to effect whatever arrangements you may desire in connection with this presentation.

Sincerely yours,

A. R. BOLLING
Major General, USA
Director, Strategic Intelligence School
